

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Yearbook of the Institute for Research of Crimes against Humanity and International Law at the University of Sarajevo announces a call for papers for its edition planned for 2026.

The journal publishes multidisciplinary contributions on crimes against peace, genocide, and other serious violations of international humanitarian law, as well as book reviews. Submissions may cover historical, legal, sociological, criminological, economic, demographic, psychological, political, cultural, medical, ecological, and other aspects relevant to the comprehensive scientific study of crimes.

The editorial board accepts only previously unpublished papers in Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian and English. All submitted manuscripts undergo a double-blind peer review process. By submitting a manuscript, authors confirm that the work is original, that all necessary permissions for the use of copyrighted materials have been obtained, and that the manuscript is not under consideration for publication elsewhere.

Submission deadline: July 15, 2026.

Manuscripts, prepared in accordance with the Guidelines for Authors, should be submitted electronically in Microsoft Word format (DOC or DOCX) to the following email:
godisnjak@iziz.unsa.ba.
